Customer Reviews

I got this book for my son who was just catching on to reading ! He loved this book and others in the series of Everything Goes books. It challenged him with new words but he was able to read it with little or no help !!!

I have boxes of new books here for my grandchildren, but my 3 yr. old and 2 yr. old repeatedly ask that I read this book to them over and over and over. The pictures are vivid and accurately help so much in telling the story about common things that most toddlers have been exposed to. Each page contains only a few simple sentences and there also is a little story line, too. Just an excellent little book for the emergent reader. As a reading assistant in an elementary school, I highly recommend it.

Great for kids starting to read. Sweet story and boys will definitely love it with all the vehicles and traffic in it.

This is a great book for early readers!
