The subtitle of this book "9 Simple and Effective Steps to Develop Self Discipline, Get Organized, and Make Things Happen"™ is the core of his book. In his introductory comments Sandeep states, "Before you read further, let me ask you a question - do you want to become successful? I know there is an obvious answer to that, which is 'Of course, yes!' • Who doesn't want to become successful in this world. In addition to this obvious answer, there is another obvious reason why many people fail to reach their full potential and ultimately give up. The reason is lack of motivation. Yes, you are right. It's the lack of motivation which stops us from giving our best. And here, I'm not talking about motivation to move a mountain or anything like that. I'm talking about motivation to do small things which we usually ignore, thinking those tiny things are not important, nor our priority. But let me tell you that those small things contribute to bigger things and ultimately to your success.
