Synopsis

Book #4 I'M TOO FOND OF MY FUR! When my old friend Professor von Volt called to ask for help, I agreed immediately--even though it meant trekking halfway around the world to Mouse Everest! The trip was long and dangerous. I almost froze my tail off along the way. And then I was kidnapped by a yeti! Yes, it was truly an amazing adventure . . .

Book #5 FOUR MICE DEEP IN THE JUNGLE! I have never been a brave mouse . . . but lately, my fears were taking over my life! So Thea and Trap decided to cure me. They dragged me away on an airplane (I'm afraid of flying!) all the way to the jungle. There I was forced to eat bug soup, climb trees as tall as skyscrapers, swim in raging rivers, and even wrangle snakes. How would a 'fraidy mouse like me ever survive?

Book #6 PAWS OFF, CHEDDARFACE! Holy cheese, it was strange! Rodents kept telling me I'd done things I had not memory of. Was I going crazy? Had the cheese finally slipped off my cracker? No, I soon discovered the truth: There was a Geronimo look-a-like going around, pretending to be me! Worst of all, he was trying to take of The Rodent's Gazette! I had to get that greedy impostor's paws off my newspaper, but how?

Customer Reviews

My son who is in the first grade, received his first set of Geronimo Stilton books on c.d. from a friend. We listened to them in the car, and the entire family enjoyed the stories so much that no one was allowed to listen unless we were all present because not even the adults wanted to miss a thing! We purchased the next set of books, which delighted my son with their colorful words and illustrations, mysterious plots and exotic locations. Since then, I think we have bought a total of 28 books in the series, and my only complaint is that I have caught my son reading under his covers at 11:00 o'clock at night! Any material that encourages my children to read in their every waking moment is a winner in my book!

We were first introduced to the Geronimo Stilton series with an audio book from a Wendy's kid's meal and fell in love with the series. My children (4 and 2 years) love listening to the audio books in the car and there is enough adult humor to the books so parents will enjoy listening to them too. Edward Herrmann does a wonderful job narrating these books.

I originally bought Geronimo Stilton on CD for the car on vacation with the grandkids. I never see it now, because it circulates between the houses of my three daughters. The grandkids never tire of it. This series of books 4 - 6, I'm Too Fond of My Fur, Four Mice Deep in the Jungle, and Paws Off, Cheddarface is as exciting as the first 3. They love to listen to Geronimo's adventures. One of my grandsons loves to fall asleep listening to Geronimo's latest story. You won't be sorry if you buy this, but you might be sorry if you don't buy more than one copy for each household.

I bought this for my son's first grade class as part of their work stations. The kids love it. It keeps them engaged and the building story sets a stage for reading as entertainment.

This was a great purchase for the kids. My kids love to listen to the stories in the car or listen to them while they fall asleep at night. Great story telling and fun stories
