This book is very informative; it has provided detailed information on how to start on your VA journey and the DOs and DON'Ts as a VA. I particularly liked how the author goes an extra mile to list some sites where one can source work, the fee and site competitiveness. He also explains in details how to go about with bidding and legal implications of this occupation.

This is really the first book I've read on working with VA's. I think the author presented a lot of quality advice, a solid overview of what to do and what to avoid. Excellent for new and aspiring VA's. Great quick read for VA's who need a little refresher and reminder for getting back to the basics. Very readable.
