Family Child Care Record-Keeping Guide, Ninth Edition (Redleaf Business Series)

Synopsis

For home-based family child care (daycare) providers, taking care of the children is only half of the job. The other half is taking care of the businessâtracking expenses, being profitable, filing taxes, and meeting government requirements. This resource covers everything family child care providers need to keep accurate business records. If a family child care provider pays close attention to the recommendations in this book, he or she will be able to claim the maximum allowable deductions and pay the lowest possible federal taxes. Since the previous edition of Family Child Care Record-Keeping Guide, Congress and the IRS have made many changes to tax rules that affect family child care providers. There have been changes in depreciation rules, adjustments to food and mileage rates, and clarifications on how to calculate the Time-Space percentage. Author Tom Copeland has been involved in many IRS audits and represented providers in several Tax Court cases that have also clarified numerous rules. Further necessitating this ninth edition, the IRS issued two significant new rules in 2013. These updates, new rules, and clarifications are detailed in this book; all of the information is applicable to child care providers in every state, regardless of local regulations. Tom Copeland, JD, is a writer, trainer, lawyer, and consultant focusing on family child care business issues. He has conducted record-keeping, tax preparation, and business workshops for family child care providers across the country since 1981.

My daughter needed help with her daycare and this book is the best on the market! If you are opening a daycare, or already running one--this book is invaluable. An absolute must have for a small business daycare owner.

Fabulous book. After fully implementing Tom Copeland's record-keeping recommendations my taxes are far less than I had anticipated. Well worth the (deductible!) dollars I paid for it.

This is a great book for doing your taxes. I wouldn't be without it. I always get the latest issue and find it invaluable when doing our taxes for my child care business.

This book is necessary for any child care provider! So helpful!

Amazing book!!! Perfect information for daycare professionals with tax questions. Daycare is far different than any accounting I have handled and this book will become your bible!!

Great guide when starting a daycare. Tells you what you can claim on taxes and how to keep records of your expense. This is a step by step and shows examples. I am glad I got this.

This is so handy, I wish I had it for my prior tax year. It does a great job not only explaining write offs, but also clarifies when the write off is appropriate.

First year doing taxes for my home daycare, this book is amazing. Combined with Tom Copeland 2015 tax book I had everything I needed.
